

Preliminary test for the course: My future profession: career guidance for kids

Prepare paper and pen. Answer the test questions and record your score for each answer.

After you answer all the questions, calculate the sum of your points. Let's go!

1. Do you know what job you're going for?

- Yes, I do 3
- There are several options, but I haven't decided yet 2
- I don't know at all 1

2. Do you understand what exactly this specialist does?

- I understand perfectly, I studied this issue, talked with those who was already working 3
- In general, I understand, but I have not studied this question in detail 2
- To be honest, not very good 1

3. Do you know which university you want to study at??

- Yes, I do 3
- There are several options, but I haven't decided yet 2
- I don't know at all 1

4. Have you decided which specialty you want to enroll in?

- Yes, I have 3
- There are several options, but I haven't decided yet 2
- I don't know at all 1

5. If you are asked to describe your strengths in one sentence, how much time will you need to answer?

- It's easy so I'll answer quickly 3
- I think it will take 5 minutes to formulate 2
- It will take a lot of time, I have never asked such a question 1

6. List all career fields that came to your mind in 10 seconds. How much did it turn out?

- More than 10 3
- More than 5 2
- More than 5 1

7. List all the topics, subjects, directions that you are interested in. How much did it turn out?

- More than 10 3
- More than 5 2
- More than 5 1

Results:

20 + points

Well done!

It's great that you know who to be and have already planned your future.

Our course will help you test your decision. Find out if there are other options for professions, universities and training programs that suit you.

You will analyze and structure your interests and strengths.

You will learn about technologies, trends and professions of the future.

You will learn how to build your own educational and career track.

You will get a plan for an effective career start at the university.

Join us!

13-20 points

You have already thought about choosing a profession, but have not yet decided definitively. This is completely normal, the choice of profession is one of the key ones in life. To do it, you need:

1. To understand your interests, strengths, goals well.
2. To know what fields and professions there are, what exactly specialists do.
3. Choose the direction and profession that are best suited for the realization of your goals.

We know how to help you make a choice and learn how to choose your future.

During the course, we study interests and strengths, get acquainted with the fields and professions of the future, choose the right direction, university and specialty.

Join us!

Less than 13 points

It's great that you're thinking about your future and want to figure out what suits you.

Choosing a profession is one of the key things in life. And it's normal that it's difficult for you to make a decision on your own, because for this you need:

1. To understand your interests, strengths, goals well.
2. To know what fields and professions there are, what exactly specialists do.
3. Choose the direction and profession that are best suited for the realization of your goals.

We know how to help you make a choice and learn how to choose your future.

During the course, we study interests and strengths, get acquainted with the fields and professions of the future, choose the right direction, university and specialty.

Join us!